

TWO BOXES OF STOMACH-RITE CURED THIS WOMAN

Dear Doctor's Daughter:
I had nervous dyspepsia for one year. I was treated by a physician, but it did me no good whatever. I was so bad at times that I became unconscious. I heard of your Stomach-Rite and took two boxes of it, and am entirely cured. Have no stomach trouble now whatever. Have now begun to take your Blood Builder to build me up. Yours,
MARY MACDONALD,
57 Washington St., Quincy, Mass.

Picture of Health.
Since taking your Stomach-Rite my oldest son, nineteen years of age, is entirely cured of severe attacks of indigestion, and has changed from a sickly, delicate-looking young man to the picture of health. Long may you live. Yours gratefully,
MRS. CHARLES E. CLARK,
643 Park Ave., Woonsocket, R. I.
For the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn, sour stomach, distress after eating and constipation, Stomach-Rite is the best medicine. A trial of one box will quickly convince you. Get it at your druggist's or Burt Wells', Barre.

The annual reunion of St. Stephen's Catholic parish in Winooski was held last evening in the form of a banquet in honor of Ireland's patron saint, St. Patrick. Judge Conlin of that village acted as toastmaster.

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

It is folly to believe that consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any specific medicine for its cure. The trouble has been that none was known until the many cures effected by Eckman's Alternative began to be realized. Now, for ten years, an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to this remedy have been accumulating. A trial of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:
"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of grippe, followed by pneumonia, and in the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of sputum. I was told later I had many hemorrhages, and at one time three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alternative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage. My cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."
Signed ADMIRAL ANNE F. LUTCHMAN, Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poison, opiate system, does not form habits. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and dealers.

Death of Mrs. F. D. Alger Great Shock To Community.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Alger, who reside on the north road to Williamstown on the west hill, were greatly shocked, and the entire community saddened, to learn of her sudden death at 4 o'clock on Saturday morning of Bright's disease. Mr. Alger, one of our enterprising young men, had worked several years for C. I. Hood of Lowell, Mass., returned to C. I. Hood a year ago and purchased his farm and last June was married to Miss Clara J. Gilman of Lowell, Mass., who was also an employee of Mr. Hood. Since her residence here, Mrs. Alger had made many friends who regret sincerely and deeply, her untimely death. A prayer was offered at the house Sunday afternoon and the remains were taken to Lowell, Mass., Monday morning, where the funeral was held and the interment made. The remains were accompanied by Mr. Alger and Madam Gilman, mother of the deceased.

George Cook of East Corinth was in town several days last week and while here was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Washington Reede.

John McCranagan, who bought the Gilbert O. Smith farm just over the line in Williamstown last fall, has recently moved onto the same.

R. M. Harvey of Montpelier, Walter J. Cave and Royal C. Flanders of Orange, and Dean Camp of Tunbridge were in town on business Saturday.

Mrs. Nathan J. Hill and sons, Thomas and Arthur, who died Wednesday, were buried at 2 o'clock on Saturday.

Russell R. Corwin, who has been ill with the gripe and unable to attend school during the past week, is convalescing and is again able to be out of doors.

Attorney W. H. Sprague was in Randolph Friday to hear evidence, as special master, in the foreclosure suit brought by Lyman Hutchinson, executor vs. James and Alice Trask.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bessette of Washington, were in town Saturday and Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Goodwin. Mrs. Bessette and Mrs. Goodwin are sisters.

State's Attorney Stanley C. Wilson was in Washington on legal business Saturday, and was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and her daughter, who were with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilson.

At the auction sale Saturday afternoon of personal property belonging to the bankrupt estate of Alfred H. Talpey, there was only a small crowd, but the property brought fairly good prices for a sale of this kind.

Mrs. Lucy Robbins, who has been working in the culinary department of the South Royalton hotel for the past few weeks has completed her labors there and returned last week to the home of her son, O. Fay Allen.

Zephire Burnelle has been seriously afflicted with rheumatism for the past two days and confined to the house. His blacksmith shop has been in charge of his son, Frank Burnelle, during the former's illness. Mr. Burnelle is recovering and hopes in a few days to be able to attend to duty again in the shop.

Mrs. Erastus R. Dickinson, who has been suffering from Bright's disease for several months, has for several days been failing rapidly and her condition has become alarming, with but slight hopes, if any, that she will again rally as she has done several times when her condition has seemed that she could not.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Lane have sold their farm near the Kingsbury corner on the Williamstown road, to Lee R. Kingsbury, who took possession of the same last week. The consideration was $900. Mr. and Mrs. Lane have moved to their farm, known as the Aaron Sargent farm, on the road leading to the Red meeting house, which has been occupied for several years by their son, Elmore Lane, who will live with them and assist in carrying on the farm.

At the opera house Thursday evening, March 21, Harrison J. Russell will present the popular actress, Lillian June Russell, in the four-act comedy drama, "The American Girl," supported by a good cast of characters. There are thirteen numbers on the musical program and after the play a social dance will be given. Good music will be in attendance throughout the evening for both the dance and play and the public is cordially invited to attend. This company was in town a short time since with a popular play and the public were well pleased with their entertainment.

WEST TOPSHAM.

S. M. Hood was in Montpelier on business Saturday.

H. B. Church was in Bradford Saturday to visit his family.

K. Clyde Church of Woodsville, N. H., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Church, over Sunday.

A. T. Freeman of Montpelier will speak at the M. E. church March 24; subject of the Sunday morning sermon, "A Divine Disappointment."

The donation held in the church Friday evening for the pastor was quite well attended, considering the inclemency of the weather. There were both vocal and instrumental music, reading and recitation. Cake and coffee were served, and an enjoyable evening was passed.

The annual meeting of the ladies' aid society was held at the home of Mrs. M. H. Hight of Wednesday, March 13, and the following officers were elected: Mrs. C. H. Hight, president; Mrs. G. H. Rice, vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Button, secretary; Mrs. E. C. Poole, treasurer; Mrs. J. A. Doy, Mrs. C. E. Button and Mrs. V. E. Jeffords, social committee; Mrs. C. H. Hight, Mrs. G. H. Rice, Miss M. E. White, committee in charge of dining room. On account of some misunderstanding, it is stated that the dinner expense of $300, of which the grange was to pay the ladies' aid society at an expense of 20%, of which the grange gave $25, and the K. of P. lodge $15. These rooms were built for the free use of all local orders and societies. Those wishing to use them can apply to the committee in charge. Parties using the same are to furnish wood and lights.

BERLIN.

Sudden Death of Gardner Dustin Was a Great Shock To Community.

Gardner Dustin, one of the best known citizens of this town, dropped dead in his home yesterday at noon from heart trouble, the death coming as a great shock to his relatives and friends, as he had been in the best of health apparently and was about his work as usual yesterday morning. Mr. Dustin was born in Berlin on February 10, 1847, the youngest of three children of Philander and Cynthia Dustin. Besides his wife, he leaves one sister, Mrs. Charles Bosworth Dewey of Berlin. His wife was Ella Warren, and he was married to her on February 8, 1871. Mr. Dustin had always lived in town, residing for some time on the George K. Perrin place, but moving a few years ago to Berlin Corners. He was a member of the Congregational church and was for many years treasurer of the society. His loss will be greatly felt in the church, as well as in the community, and the sympathy of all goes out to Mrs. Dustin, who was prostrated by the shock of his death. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Frank Blomfield officiating.

The "400" club meets with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winslow on Wednesday evening, the 20th.

Nathan Bouldry has so far recovered from his illness as to be able to be out of doors on Sunday for the first time.

The grange held its regular meeting on Friday evening, the 16th. The third and fourth degrees were conferred on a class of candidates, after which a harvest supper was served, followed by a social hour. In spite of the bad weather, a good attendance was out.

The grange has been invited to hold a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hancock on Saturday evening, the 23d. Each member is expected to answer to the roll, and according to all report some of the stunts will be well worth seeing. So come and don't miss a good time.

WAITSFIELD.

Mrs. Howard is ill with typhoid fever. O. J. McAllister, who is seriously ill, was reported more comfortable on Sunday.

Mrs. Stephen Stewart went to Mary Fletcher hospital Saturday for treatment.

Mrs. Clarissa Porter and Miss Lillian have returned to the home of R. J. Browne.

Mrs. Martha Kew, who has spent the winter in Barre, has returned to her home in Iraville.

D. A. Kneeland is on the sick list, threatened with pneumonia. A nurse from Heaton hospital is caring for him.

Willie Collins returned from Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington, Saturday, having had an operation for appendicitis.

Misses Louise Gleason and Mabel Howe of Montpelier and Misses Minnie Maxwell and Marguerite Kew of Barre are spending their vacations at their respective homes.

Phillip Bisbee, who is attending school in Montpelier, is spending the Easter vacation at his parent's home. Miss Gertrude, who has been in Barre, reached home Saturday morning.

ROCHESTER.

Mrs. Jane Bean, who has been seriously ill, is now improving.

Miss Lucy French of Somerville, Mass., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. S. French. Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Dan Hemenway in Granville on Sunday.

George Clark has moved from Granville into the house owned by George Newton.

Lawrence Edgerton of Dartmouth college has been spending a few days with his parents.

Herman Kent has been in Stockbridge recently, having moved Arthur LeBar and family to that place.

A son was born March 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Akey, it being a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Martin.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

James K. Hackett has Surrounded Himself With Good Cast.

Theatre goers of this city are soon to see one of the greatest successes of the season, for James K. Hackett and his splendid company will appear at the opera house next Friday, March 22, in Louis Evan Shipman's dramatization of David Graham Phillips' most celebrated novel, "The Grain of Dust."

Hackett and the play come here direct from Boston. With Mr. Hackett here will be E. M. Holland, himself a famous star, and among the others, Frazer Coulter, Frank Burbee, Charles Steadman, Vaughan Trevor, Fred Sullivan, Daniel Jarrett, Jr., Miss Olive Harper, Miss Lucille Jewel and Miss Anne Crews.

MARSHFIELD.

Mrs. Chattie Johnson of East Montpelier is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Sadie Rosebrook, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Ernest Rosebrook is nursing in the home of Arch Lamphere of Plainfield.

Miss Jessica Robinson of 580 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. G. L. Dwinell for a few days.

Mrs. F. W. Cole and little granddaughter, Helen Prouty, were in Burlington over Sunday at the home of Mrs. Cole's daughter, Mrs. Prouty, who has been very ill of inflammatory rheumatism, but is reported more comfortable.

The family of R. L. Cameron are all ill, the two daughters, Amy and Dorothy, having pneumonia, and Mrs. Cameron having a severe attack of influenza, with a fear of pneumonia. All are reported as doing well and hopes of their recovery are entertained.

Many of the friends of B. F. Chester helped him to celebrate his birthday last Saturday; refreshments were served by Mrs. Chester, and an enjoyable time spent by Mrs. Chester and the sympathy of his many friends in the vicinity, and all hope for his recovery.

Mrs. Helen Loveland of Glensbury, Conn., arrived at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. L. Cameron, last Sunday, in response to a summons from them to come on account of the illness of the children. Mrs. Loveland will be welcomed by all her old friends, who have not seen her for nearly four years.

The friends of B. F. Chester are sorry to learn of his misfortune, that of losing the use of his limbs. Mr. Chester recently went to Burlington, where he received the attention of eminent surgeons, who gave him but little encouragement regarding recovery of the use of them, but Dr. Brock of Montpelier gives him much of hope regarding partial, if not complete, use of the same. Dr. Brock comes to the home of Mr. Chester twice each week.

Otis Freeman died last week Monday night, his wife having died nine days previous. Mrs. Freeman was ill of pneumonia about a week, but was critically ill from the start. Mr. Freeman had been feeble for months, and the sudden illness and death of his wife were hard for him to bear. Two days after her burial he suffered a stroke of paralysis, never rallying. The funeral was held Thursday at the late home, Rev. Chapin officiating, and the remains were placed in the tomb at Cabot, beside those of his wife.

At the last meeting of Myrtle temple, No. 2, Pythian Sisters, the M. E. G. Mrs. Mabel Cameron, presented S. Sverdrup, a solid silver souvenir, in appreciation of his kindness and aid during the trip to St. Albans, taken the 15th and 16th of February. Mr. Sverdrup responded in a few well-chosen words. At the time mentioned, eighteen Pythian Sisters, Mrs. Adella Sverdrup, M. E. G.; Mrs. Genevieve Lambertson, P. C.; Mrs. Kate Lambertson, E. J.; Mrs. Mabel Cameron, E. S.; Mrs. Della Saxby, M. of C.; Mrs. Lettie Bouldry, M. of C.; Mrs. Bertha Hall, M. of C.; and Mrs. Kate Rosebrook, Mrs. Gertrude Moors, Mrs. Nellie Southwick, Mrs. Lena Scribner, Mrs. Blanche Pike, Mrs. Nena Preston, Mrs. Nellie Emery, Mrs. Marion Lambertson, Mrs. Josie Morse, Mrs. Idella Unwin as degree team, and Mrs. Nellie Pitkin, pianist, were called to St. Albans to assist the grand officers in instituting a new temple. The company were received by the people of St. Albans very cordially and received courteous treatment while in the city. The new temple is called Emerald temple, No. 16, and had charter members numbering 13 men and 22 women. A recent edition of the St. Albans Messenger spoke very flatteringly of the work done by Myrtle temple, which was appreciated by all who were there.

Mrs. Jerusha Woods Dwinell, widow of the late Erastus Dwinell, was born in Fairlee, Vt., Nov. 24, 1831. Mr. and Mrs. Dwinell were married March 23, 1856. Mr. Dwinell died September 23, 1891, and Mrs. Dwinell passed away the 26th of last February. Mrs. Dwinell was a woman widely known, especially so in Washington county, as she was president of the W. C. T. U. several years, superintendent of evangelical work many years, and attended the meetings of that organization as long as her health permitted. In her home town Mrs. Dwinell was highly respected by all, who sympathized with her and her family in her last illness, which resulted from a stroke of apoplexy two years ago last November, the patient being bedridden since.

Mrs. Dwinell remained in the home Mr. Dwinell left so many years previously, caring for her loved ones as long as possible and in turn receiving the loving care of her son and family. The last two weeks of her life were spent in continual unrest and raving, resulting from another paralytic stroke. Mrs. Dwinell is survived by one son, Gilbert L., a stepson, Orvis, of Peoria, Ill., who is district superintendent of the M. E. society for Peoria district, two grand-children and one great-grandchild, all of this town. In the earlier years of Mr. and Mrs. Dwinell's lives they were Baptists, but later were admitted to the Methodist church of this place by a letter from their former pastor. Always working for the church and its welfare, both are greatly missed, but the memory of their good works and faithfulness will long remain. The funeral of Mrs. Dwinell occurred at her late home February 25, Rev. Chapin of the Congregational church officiating, with burial in the family lot in the village cemetery. Those to lay the loved one in her last resting place were the son, Gilbert L., and three grandsons, Clyde Moors, Earl and James Dwinell.

Mrs. Mandana Meader, widow of the late Horace H. Meader, died last Tuesday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Meader will be remembered by all townspeople and many throughout the country as the matron of the Marshfield house, for many years kept by the Meaders. Mrs. Meader was a good woman, as everyone who knew her will testify. She brought up to manhood seven boys, only one of these being her own, George, who survives her. The death of her only daughter, which occurred a few years ago, overcame the mother, and she had not recovered from the loss, mourning daily for the comfort her daughter gave her. Mrs. Meader was a faithful wife, mother and aunt to all who were under her care all the years of their sojourn with her. The youngest of these is Raymond Ellsworth, the child of Blanche Meader Ellsworth of St. Albans. Mrs. Meader was 73 years and 10 months of age. The funeral was held from her late home last Thursday. Rev. Ranney of the Methodist church officiating. The bearers were the son, George, two brothers of her late husband, Oakley and Samuel, and a nephew, Guy Meader. The body was placed in the tomb at Cabot, awaiting burial in the cemetery at Cabot village, beside her husband.
